

Certification of Indian Heritage

Any child having substantial American Indian heritage must, by law, have a release from their tribe before being placed for adoption.

Consequently, if you, your parents, or grandparents are “Registered Card Holders” of an Indian tribe, Family to Family Adoptions, Inc. will the following information from you and or the registered relative:

Full Legal Name
Date of Birth
Name of Indian Tribe
Address and Location of Indian Tribe

If you have only ‘some’ Indian heritage, but neither you nor your family members are registered card holders of a tribe, the above information is not required.

Please initial the statement which best describes your situation:

- _____ 1. To my knowledge, there is NO American Indian heritage in my family.
- _____ 2. Although my family has some American Indian heritage, we are not registered cardholders of an Indian tribe.
- _____ 3. Yes, I and/or a member of my family is/are registered cardholders of an American Indian tribe. Therefore, we will provide you with the necessary information requested above.
