Family to Family Adoptions, Inc.

Home Study Contract For Adoption

This contract is entered on _____ day of _____, 20___ between _____ _____ (adoptive family name) and Family to Family Adoptions. Family to Family has been requested to complete a home study and this contract specifies the terms and conditions of the home study provided by the agency and verifies the services provided for a home study.

The home study service provided by Family to Family Adoptions will include an interview, home study report, update if needed, and post placements if applicable. If post placements are needed then the home study fee will cover two of the post placement visits. Each additional post placement is $250.00 each.

If an update is needed to the original home study, this will also be included in the home study fee. If the adoptive family is adopting internationally and the family decides to switch countries or referral agencies there will be an additional charge for the new home study. If the adoptive family moves and the home study is to be updated then there will be an additional charge for the social worker to visit the new home. An update can also be completed for a second adoption with a fee of $750.00 with the same agency and international country if applicable.

The adoptive family agrees to the above mentioned and is entering into this home study contract with Family to Family Adoptions, 1000 Austin Street, Suite B, Richmond, Texas 77469, 281-342-4042.
